RIVAL GANGSTERS BATTLE IN BRONX; ONE MAN IS SHOT

Another Is Blackjacked in the Street After Pitched Battle
in Bergen Clubhouse.

Jealousies between rival gangs, members of the Williston Club and the Bergen Club, in the Bronx, led last night and early today to the shooting of one man, the blackjacking of another and the injuring of several of the gangsters.

Last Saturday night, when the Williston Club was giving a ball in the McKinley Square Casino, a body of the Bergen gangsters descended upon the dance and shot out the lights, effectually putting all the dancers in a panic. Last night eighteen or twenty of the Williston Club members, bent on reprisal, went to the clubrooms of the Bergen organization, at One Hundred and Fifty-fourth street and Elton avenue, and started a free-for-all fight. Revolvers were drawn on both sides, chairs were broken and the pandemonium finally attracted the police. When they broke into the clubrooms, nobody was there but John Burns, who lay on the floor, with a bullet through one knee. He refused to tell who had shot him or who had engaged in the battle. He was removed to Lebanon Hospital. Marvin Dolson, of No. 364 Manton avenue, driver of a milk wagon, appeared at his company's stables at 2 o'clock this morning, to take out his wagon; but he said he feared he would be "beaten up" and he asked that an inspector ride with him on his rounds. His request was granted.

Three hours later, when the wagon stopped in front of No. 25 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, three men suddenly jumped to the horse's head and demanded that the inspector step down. When he had done so the three began scientifically to "beat up" Dolson with blackjacks. By the time a policeman had answered the inspector's treble blasts on a police whistle Dolson was unconscious and his assailants had fled. Dolson also went to Lebanon Hospital, not seriously hurt. He, like Burns, refused to tell who had assaulted him. But he is a member of the Williston Club and the police suppose he was one of the attackers upon the Bergen Club earlier in the evening.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair coming out?—If dry, brittle, thin or your scalp itches and is full of dandruff—Use "Danderine."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Today and Tomorrow are the last two days of the Final Sale of Saks Suits for Men

formerly $20 to $35
now $16

We are through with this season's clothing sales after tomorrow night, and for that reason we wish to emphasize the urgency of your patronizing this final event before it is over. We will not consume your time with a recapitulation of the models and fabrics, except to say that there is a liberal range of both. But we would like you to remember that every garment in this sale is Saks-made, despite the extraordinary liberality of the reductions.

A Saks Overcoat for $10

reads like a misprint, but it isn't

None of these garments was formerly less than fifteen dollars, because we do not make overcoats below that figure; and many of these coats were formerly much higher than that. But ten dollars is the price today and tomorrow, and we cannot promise that you will ever have another chance to buy a Saks fancy lightweight overcoat at this price.

The Newest Authentic Modes in

Women's Tailored Suits

will have their initial presentation tomorrow at Saks' in a remarkable offering of advance Spring styles

A Saks reproduction is simply a Paris model seen through a double lens

In this collection of tailored suit styles are the latest contributions from the European centres of fashion. If you could be transported overnight to Paris, Vienna or Berlin, you would find the smartest models in these Old World cities to be nothing but counterparts of those assembled here. You would find, too, in seeing those models which failed of our approval, full and flattering proof of our judgment and discrimination.

There are possibly one hundred and fifty different models in the present Saks selection of Spring suit styles, and these represent the cream of contemporary fashions. Even models that had their Paris debut as recently as the election of M. Poincare to the Presidency of the French Republic are included in this spirited array of tailored suit styles. And whether it be a simple little suit on demure and dainty lines, or an elaborate creation, rich in design and ablaze with color, it reflects the original model as perfectly as the original model reflects the idea in the mind that thought it.

Four Special Values for Saturday

Tailored Suits value $39.50 $25

The selection embraces the most desirable models and materials, the latter including poplins, serges, Bedford cords, check and mixtures. All the modish colors.

Fancy Suits value $65 $48.50

The newest materials in all colorings. Mostly accurate reproductions of imported models, but several that are adapted to ideas of our own. Short fronts, dip backs, draped skirts, and hand-embroidered trimmings.

Tailored Suits value $50 $39.50

Exceptionally smart models. Cutaway, Russian and Bulgarian blouse effects. Straight fronts. Materials are wool poplin, faille de laine, whipcord, serge and checks.

Dressy Suits value $79 $59

The choice of fabrics includes silk moire, silk poplin, wool Bengaline and faille de laine, in light and dark colorings. Fancy vests, draped skirts and a wealth of selection in the trimmings. Extremely attractive models.

From Our Paris Advances

Wool poplin and wool bengaline continue to be very popular in tailored suits.

Plaids are much in vogue again, black and white broken shepherd checks particularly.

A novel feature of many models in Spring suits is a frog fastening of twisted self material.

The new jackets are so diminutive as to be scant—Bulgarian casaque that are as brief as wit and beauty.

Sleeves in both suits and dresses flare liberally out at the elbows, giving a more comfortable interpretation of the "out-at-elbows" idea.

Skirts are narrower, and in many of them an inverted V exposes the ankle to the extent of a passing glimpse.

Veilings

We have received a shipment of the newest things in veilings, including shadow veilings, fancy meshes and chenille dotted veilings, in white, black, and modish colorings. Priced at 18c to 75c per yard.

The newest thing of all is the Vanity Veil, which is just a plain mesh, with a big chenille dotted design on one cheek.

Chiffon Veils, 85c to $5.75 each.

117 Matched Fur Sets

at half prices tomorrow

and you need pay only one-third of the reduced price at time of purchase

Our fur sets are fast reaching the vanishing point. We have so liberally reduced them that the wonder is that they have not all passed into private ownership before this. As it is, only a limited number of these sets remain, and of these we shall feature 117 at really extraordinary savings tomorrow. Consider, also, the two following advantages, and then ask yourself whether you can afford to lose such a phenomenal opportunity.

Provided you leave your fur set with us for storage, you need pay only one-third of the reduced price now and the balance can wait until the set is taken out of storage next Fall.

And, whether you pay one-third now or the full amount of your purchase, no charge will be made for storage during the forthcoming summer.

Women's Neckwear

a manufacturer's samples at really tremendous savings tomorrow

To enjoy these liberal values you will need to act just as quickly as we did. Such bargains in neckwear are far too good to suffer from a lack of buyers. The assortments embrace silk collars in a variety of shapes and styles, in black and colors, with fine shadow lace jabots attached. Also, tailored stocks in silk, silk and pique, and silk and chiffon. So far as recollection serves us, we have never before offered neckwear values anything like the following:—

$1 to $1.75 values at 50c.

$2.25 to $3.75 values at 75c.

Boys' Spring Suits

that are a great advance on average values and styles

Our assortments of boys' suits could hardly be any more liberal without risking the exclusive character of the variety. We have got everything in young men's clothes that is worth earnest consideration, both as to models and fabrics. And the workmanship and the style of these garments are just as superior as ever.

Embraced in the selection are blue serges, fancy mixtures, black and white checks and homespun. Made in Norfolk models, mohair lined, and some with patch pockets. Snappy, swagger little suits that are buoyant with style and moderately priced into the bargain.

Here is the range of prices:

$5.95 $6.95 $7.75 $8.50 to $16.75

Children's reefers, in blue serge and fancy mixtures. We have a complete line of these garments and the values will stand favorable comparison with any you can find elsewhere. Ages 3 to 10 years. $5.50 up to $10.95

New Models in Misses' apparel that are acquisitions worth your while an addition is one thing, but an acquisition is another

A tailored suit, a dress, a coat, in fact everything that one wears, must be clever to have style, and any style that has the sanction and approval of the fashionable elect, is usually clever.

With so many hundreds of styles being evolved, however, cleverness and style are not always interchangeable, and many creations are exploited which are as stupid as a dull mind in clever company. At Saks' cleverness and style are inseparable.

Newness alone is no more a criterion of merit in a model than it is in a book. Saks' models are selected for some distinctive, some individual, some clever quality which arrests, holds and charms. And not even our persistent adherence to low prices is permitted to encroach upon our policy of cleverness in Misses' styles.

Spring Hats for Misses

Girls & Children, $3.95 to $22.50

The only complaint young people can make against our display of hats for this Spring is that it is a hardship to select just one lone little hat from so many that are uniformly beautiful. Many of these hats come direct from Parisian modistes who design hats for youthful heads exclusively. Others are adaptations and inspirations of our own. The shapes are mostly small, and there is a profusion of Bulgarian colored ribbons and fancy feathers in the selection of trimmings. Hats suitable for dress and street wear and moderately priced.

At $6.95 and $7.50 particularly you will find many hats that are the equal of those sold at $9 and $10 elsewhere.

Second Floor

Imported French Hats $25 and upwards

Hats that are as French as Bernhardt and as versatile

Depletion set in so fast among those wonderful millinery creations which formed so conspicuous a company in our recent millinery opening, that the new Paris hats just to hand come none too soon.

But these newer contributions somewhat belie the predictions made for the small hat this Spring. They are just a trifle larger. A brim broadens almost imperceptibly to lend support to a flower that wants more sun. It is as though those first bud-like designs are opening up their petals under the influence of Spring. Colorings are as brilliant as ever, except in a number of hats that are effective with a spiral trimming which waves like a palm in a Sahara of restraint. Prettier hats it would be hard to imagine, and they are most reasonably priced.

Third floor

Copies and Adaptations of Paris Model Hats, $10, $12 and up to $22.50.
